

Snow White – A Play

Scene 1

Narrator 1: Snow White's mother died when she was a little baby.

Narrator 2: She lived happily with her father, the king, in the castle.

Narrator 3: One day her father called her.

King: Snow White, this is Princess Bella. She's a very special lady and I'm going to marry her.

Snow White: That's wonderful. I hope you'll be happy in the castle with daddy and me.

Narrator 4: Snow White's new mother was very beautiful ... but she wasn't kind.

Narrator 1: She didn't read stories to Snow White, and she never played with her.

Narrator 2: Sometimes she left her in her room, alone.

Narrator 3: Every evening Queen Bella looked into her magic mirror.

Queen Bella: Mirror, mirror, on the wall ... who's the most beautiful woman in the world?

Voice from the mirror: You are.

Scene 2

Narrator 4: Five years later Queen Bella looked into her magic mirror.

Queen Bella: Mirror, mirror, on the wall ... who's the most beautiful woman in the world?

Voice from the mirror: You dear Queen, are beautiful, it's true, but ... Snow White is more beautiful than you!

Queen Bella: That's impossible! Snow White! Come here immediately.

Narrator 1: Queen Bella looked at Snow White and ... it was true!
Snow White was more beautiful than Queen Bella.

Queen Bella: Ah! Snow White. Tomorrow you can go for a walk in the forest with the woodcutter. You can pick some flowers for your room.

Snow White: Thank you. I love walking in the forest! I can pick some flowers for you, too.

Narrator 2: The next morning Queen Bella called the woodcutter.

Queen Bella: You must go into the forest with Snow White... and you must kill her!

The woodcutter: Kill Snow White? I can't do that!

Queen Bella: You must!

Scene 3

Narrator 3: That afternoon Snow White and the woodcutter walked a long way into the forest.

Narrator 4: Snow White picked a beautiful bunch of wild flowers.

Snow White: I'm tired. Can we go home now?

Woodcutter: I'm sorry, Snow White. You can't go back to the castle. Queen Bella told me to kill you! I don't want to kill you... Of course I can't kill you! I can tell her you're dead, but you can never go back to the castle again. She hates you!

Narrator 1: The woodcutter went back to the castle alone.

Queen Bella: Did you kill Snow White?

Woodcutter: Yes.

Queen Bella: Good! Now that she's dead, I'm the most beautiful woman in the world again!

Scene 4

Narrator 2: Snow White was alone and sad, but she made friends with some rabbits and a deer. Then she fell asleep.

Narrator 3: Early in the morning the birds woke her up and she saw a small cottage.

Snow White: Come with me. Perhaps someone in the cottage knows where the castle is. I must go home and tell my father that Queen Bella wants to kill me.

Narrator 4: There was no one in the garden but the cottage door was open. Snow White went inside ...

Scene 5

Narrator 1. The cottage was very small and everything inside was very small.

Snow White: A small table, seven small chairs, seven small beds. Perhaps seven children live here.

Narrator 2: The kitchen was a mess!

Narrator 3: There were dirty plates, glasses, cups and knives, forks and spoons in the sink and on the table.

Narrator 4: The bedroom was a mess!

Narrator 1: There were dirty clothes and shoes on the floor.

Narrator 2. Snow White cleaned the kitchen and washed the plates, the cups, the glasses and the knives, forks and spoons.

Narrator 3: She mad some soup for the children.

Narrator 4: Then she washed the clothes and made the beds.

Narrator 1: Finally, the cottage was clean, but Snow White was tired. She fell asleep on one of the beds.

Narrator 2: The people who lived in the cottage were seven dwarfs, not children.

Narrator 3: They were surprised when they came home.

Fattest dwarf: Oh ... Magic!

Tallest dwarf: Don't be silly. Magic can't clean a house!

Youngest dwarf: Fairy magic can!

Oldest dwarf: There are no fairies and there is no magic.

Shortest dwarf: Then who washed the clothes and cleaned the cottage?

Happiest dwarf: And who cooked the dinner?

Thinnest dwarf: Let's look in the bedroom.

Narrator 4: They opened the bedroom door quietly, but Snow White woke up.

Snow White: Oh, you're not children!

Oldest dwarf: Of course we're not children. We're dwarfs!

Youngest dwarf: Are you a fairy?

Narrator 1: Snow White told the seven dwarfs about her walk in the forest with the woodcutter.

Narrator 2: She told them that Queen Bella wanted to kill her.

Snow White: I must go home. I want to tell my father about Queen Bella. Please take me to the castle.

Thinnest dwarf: You can't go to the castle. The King's not there. Everyone knows he's in the forest. He's looking for you!

Tallest dwarf: No! Don't go to the castle. Queen Bella hates you! Stay here with us.

Snow White: You're very kind – all of you.

Snow White: Perhaps I can help in the house while I'm here?

Shortest dwarf: Wonderful! Mmm... That soup smells delicious. Can we have dinner now? I'm hungry!

Scene 6

Narrator 3: The next day Queen Bella looked into her magic mirror.

Queen Bella: Mirror, mirror, on the wall, who's the most beautiful woman in the world?

Voice from the mirror: You, dear Queen are beautiful, it's true, but ...
Snow White is more beautiful than you!

Queen Bella: That's not true. Snow White's dead!

Voice from the mirror: No ... Snow White's in the forest with the seven dwarfs.

Queen Bella: I'm going to find her and kill her! Mirror, mirror, on the wall. I want to be an old lady and I want a basket of poisoned apples.

Scene 7

Narrator 4: Queen Bella put on a old brown dress and went to the cottage.

Narrator 1: Snow White was in the garden.

Queen Bella disguised as an old lady: Hello. Would you like one of my apples?

Snow White: Thank you. What lovely, shiny red apples!

Narrator 2: Snow White ate a small piece of an apple.

Snow White: Ugh! It tastes bad.

Narrator 3: Snow White looked at the old lady's face... it was Queen Bella!

Queen Bella: Ha! Ha! The apple is poisoned! You're going to die!

Scene 8

Narrator 4: Queen Bella ran to the castle.

Narrator 1: The woodcutter saw the old lady go into the castle. He followed her.

Queen Bella: Mirror, mirror on the wall. Who's the most beautiful woman in the world?

Voice from the mirror: You, dear Queen are beautiful, it's true, but... Snow White is more beautiful than you. She only ate a small piece of the apple ... She didn't die.

Queen Bella: NO! NO! NO!'

Narrator 2: Queen Bella was very, very angry and threw the mirror on the floor!

Narrators 1, 2, 3 and 4: CRASH!

Narrator 3: When the mirror broke... she died!

Narrator 4: The woodcutter saw Queen Bella break the mirror and die.

Narrator 1: He ran into the forest and found the King.

Woodcutter: Queen Bella is dead! She wanted to kill Snow White... we must find Snow White!

Scene 9

Narrator 2: The King and the woodcutter found the cottage in the forest.

Youngest dwarf: Snow White's dead.

King: Oh, no! My poor, dear Snow White...

Narrator 3: Snow White heard her father and sat up with a smile.

Snow White: I'm not dead. Queen Bella gave me a poisoned apple and I fell asleep...

King: I'm so happy that she didn't kill you.

The seven dwarfs: Yes, and so are we!
